

ENCORE Discoveries

---

1. Name the three “components” of the Gospel as found in 1 Corinthians 15:3 and 4.
  2. Which of the three parts of the Gospel do you think is emphasized most often? Which of the three usually gets ignored and why?
  3. Discuss why each element is important:
Death =
Burial =
Resurrection =
  4. Why do you think the words “according to the Scriptures” were used?
  5. How can we “believe in vain”? Does that mean we can lose our salvation? What Scripture can you use to back that up?
  6. Can you think of who might have seen Jesus after He rose from the dead? List at least eight situations.
  7. Paul lists “evidences” or proofs of Jesus’ resurrection is important for faith. Why? What other evidences can we give, either biblical or personal, that could help others believe?
  8. Paul declared the Gospel. What barriers tend to get in the way of declaring the gospel?
-

Theme: Worship through Witnessing

---

Monday

Do you believe that Jesus literally died, was buried, and resurrected from death? Why or why not?

Tuesday

The Gospel is grounded in the Scriptures yet “shined” out through believers. What things can you do to become a better light for Jesus?

Wednesday

Have you ever worshipped God by witnessing about His Son’s death, burial, and resurrection? If so, take time to reflect on the experience and put your thoughts down here.

Thursday

Can you be bolder about sharing the historical truths of the Gospel in the days ahead? Think of several family members, friends, and neighbors who desperately need to hear this Good News. List some names here and pray for opportunities to share.

Friday

Describe how the various spiritual gifts can work together to bring about a witness of the Gospel.

Saturday

“Dear LORD, give me boldness and love as I attempt to share Your truth with others. Help me to willingly tell people about Your death, burial and all important resurrection—You are alive! How can I do less than let that message freely flow out of me? Give me grace...”

---